

Life in 2021 is hectic. Maybe you feel like you've lost control and want to take charge of your life again - to take your power back!

Coaching is a unique process aimed at helping you grow in awareness of what matters most to you.

This growing field of healthcare in which coaches help people reclaim control of their lives by empowering them to make their own choices involves all aspects of life: sleep, nutrition, movement, social relationships, and stress factors.

IS COACHING THE RIGHT FIT FOR ME?

Coaching is based on the idea that the answers you need to live a healthy life are found within you, not externally. A coach will consider all of your strengths and weaknesses, your personal likes and dislikes, and your readiness to make a change. Your coach will use all of this information to help you unleash your full potential. If there is a behavior that you want to change or if there are stressors that need to be addressed, health coaching may be the answer for you. Health coaches are in essence "a guide on your side".

We are here to support you in reaching your health and well-being goals!

BRIDGING THE GAP

Health & Wellness Coaching
WILSON FAMILY YMCA

Health & Wellness Coaching can help you bridge the gap between what you KNOW you should do and being able TO DO it consistently!

PERSONAL TRAINER OR HEALTH COACH: WHAT IS THE DIFFERENCE?

Personal trainers:

- Motivate and inspire client struggling to make changes on their own
- Instruct client about how to change
- May set goals for the client to be accomplished in certain timeframe
- Mostly focus on physical change

Health coaches:

- Centered around helping client access inner resources so they leave with the tools they have within themselves to accomplish their goals
- Guides client through the use of thought-provoking questions and conversations to discover their own goals and confidence
- Health coaching relationship is longterm and ongoing to ensure any underlying issues are addressed
- Focus on change within the whole person

Both personal trainers and health coaches play huge roles in the lives of their clients and often work together to ensure the client's needs are met.
